RACING OVER AT AQUEDUCT

CRESSINA WINS THE LAST STAKE RACE OF THE MEETING.

Joyner's Lucky Day—Merry England Defeats Bad News—Gerst's Zagg Takes the Final Race.

New York, November 15.—A. J. Joyner was the hero of the last day of racing aboard New York for the season of 1907. At Aqueduct today his Watercress colt, Hessian, scored for him, while his filly, Cressina, took the Nassau Handicap, the closing stake race of the season. The weather was bright and warm and a large crowd was on hand to see the last of the runners until April 15, 1908.

By long odds the best contest of the afternoon came out of the six and a half furlongs handicap that was the first number. This was the race won by Hessian and the character of the victory of the two-year-old proclaims him the best youngster that has raced during the fall season. He was forced to take up 103 pounds, carrying five pounds overweight, which brought him on equal terms, by the scale, with such a good sprinter as Suffrage. To everything else in the field he was giving away great lumps of weight. In the running he met with no end of misfortune. After being away none too well, he worked his way into a contending position in the stretch, only to be pocketed on the inner rail by Suffrage, which was making the pace. As Miller pulled him out of this difficulty, Lad of Langden crowded over against him and it was only his remarkable courage that saw him through in time to win going away by a short margin. Barring the hard luck he met with in the stretch, he would have made a show of his opponents.

Joyner was not at all pleased with the treatment Cressina had received in her race yesterday and the ease with which she won the Nassau proved that he had reason for dissatisfaction. McCarter was always favorite and there was little demand for any of the others. Seven raced, Faust being scratched, while Ben Ban and W. H. Daniel were added. McCarter had a very rough trip all the way and Cressina would have been much straighter to beat him had Miller been more alert at the start and had found fewer pockets in the running. Gretna Green, the one to race second to Cressina, also met with much interference.

The condensed history of the Nassau Handicap is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1902	Andy Williams...	114	Lyne	$ 940	1:47¼
1903	Gaviota	111	Fuller	930	1:49¼
1904	Orthodox	110	J. Martin ..	1,135	1:28¼
1905	Santa Catalina...	110	W. Miller..	1,630	1:39¼
1906	Athlete	103	McDaniel ..	1,495	1:43
1907	Cressina	98	Delaby ...	1,570	1:39

Run at 1 1-16 miles in 1902 and 1903 and at 7-8 mile in 1904.

Kilter was best in his race, but was bumped by St. Valentine just after the start and both of them were knocked out of it. The winner turned up in Merry England at long odds, with Bad News second and Kilter a fast coming third, after having made up a tremendous amount of ground in a practically useless display of speed. After his mishap, St. Valentine was not persevered with, but galloped along at his ease in the rear.

Aimee C. had no opposition capable of extending her in the third race and won all the way by a wide margin. Ace High won the fifth race almost from start to finish, with Stoney Lee a good second. The latter was the medium of a misdirected plunge and but for Ace High being in the way, would have made good. He was backed from 10 to 1 down to 3 to 1 and at one time was flattering his hopeful backers by leading in the stretch.

The last race of the local season of 1907 fell to W. Gerst's Zagg, which had frequently before threatened to emerge from the maiden class. It was his race from the rise of the barrier and he had many backers who considered his performance exceedingly timely and appropriate.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT AT WASHINGTON.

Good Horses in Abundance Ready for Action —A Fast Track and Good Weather.

Washington, D. C., November 15.—Unless all signs fail the Washington Jockey Club will have the best meeting it has ever held from the standpoint of a good class in the horses here for racing. Better horses have been kept in training late this season than in any previous year, and they will race here for the stakes and purses offered by the association, which are worth while in these hard times, even if they do not approach in value those of the regular season on the big New York tracks.

The opening day's card is remarkably good, and the horses entered are all here. The fields are large and in the main so well balanced as to furnish sharp contention and good mediums for speculation, and there will be plenty of the latter, despite the scarcity of ready money. Washington is not in as bad a fix as other cities with regard to the money question, and the local attendance will be good.

Tonight the New York crowd will arrive many hundreds strong. Many horsemen are already here, the horses that raced at Pimlico having moved over to Benning. For the past several days the weather has been perfect and the track is now in fine condition. Indications are for fine weather tomorrow. There will be a scarcity of good riders, and those who contemplate having a try for winners are warned that in doing so they are taking some risk of poor management for their horses. McDaniel and Notter will be here, but that is the extent of the skillful and successful riders. Miller leaves for San Francisco at once, and Dugan will go either west or south. Delaby goes straight to New Orleans. There are a number of fairly good youngsters, of course, who will do the best they can, and it will be a golden opportunity for them to improve.

A. B. Dade will do the starting tomorrow in place of Mars Cassidy, whose wife is seriously ill in New York, but Cassidy is expected here Monday.

Joseph Murphy is here to act as placing judge and handicapper.

Nine carloads of horses came in this morning from New York.

John E. Madden has six horses here, which it is his intention to sell before the close of the meeting.

TEXAS RACING OFFICIALS.

The meeting of the San Antonio Fair Association, which opened last Monday to run until November 23, is in charge of the following officials: M. N. Macfarlan as presiding judge; Arthur McKnight as starter; Charles Campau, clerk of scales; O. W. Boardman, entry clerk; B. C. Bunbury, paddock judge, and W. H. Simms, track superintendent.

Judge Joseph A. Murphy, who will occupy the stand at Benning tomorrow, was presiding judge of the meeting on the Texas circuit until his departure for Washington.

LONG SHOTS PREVAIL AT OAKLAND.

Gemmell Defeats Proper and Other Cracks —Money Muss Wins Again.

Oakland, Cal., November 15.—A fine field, including turf celebrities of the first rank, such as Proper, Rapid Water and May L. N., were engaged in the chief feature, the Healdsburg Handicap, over the Futurity course at Oakland today. None of this distinguished trio figured prominently in its running, however, the issue being left to the fast horse, Gemmell, and H. G. Bedwell's Silver Stocking, which finished noses apart, the former gaining the verdict in the very last stride. Proper was a beaten off third.

Another sprinting affair, not a bit inferior to the stake in point of class and more interesting as a spectacle, wound up the afternoon's program. Some of the fastest horses in local training participated and the race developed into one of the most exciting and closely contested struggles that has been witnessed since the present season began. Harry Stover's Glenheim—Sister Jeanie gelding, Native Son, won in the last stride of a tremendous closing drive, with almost the entire field closely bunched.

Form backers fared badly on the afternoon's ring business, only one favorite in Money Muss rewarding his supporters.

Guy Burns fell far short of equalling his brilliant work of the day before, closing his afternoon's saddle work with only one win to his credit. He failed lamentably on the two other favorites, Rifleman and Pajaroita, being eliminated as a contender on the former at the start and defeating the latter by senseless and exhaustive pacemaking tactics.

The weather was ideal, there is no diminution in attendance and interest, and thus far the racing has been exceptionally clean and attractive. The stewards are taking severest measures with jockeys who resort to foul riding and are unruly at the post. Scoville has been set down a week for breaking through the barrier with San Gil in the first race.

Alfred Koenigsberger, Peter Christianson and Henry Friesenhausen are a trio of noted turf plungers lately arrived from the east.

NEW ORLEANS OFFICIALS CHOSEN.

New Orleans, La., November 15.—At a meeting of the directors of the Crescent City and City Park tracks held yesterday, the full list of officials that will serve during the winter term of racing was completed. The slate comprises the following personel:

Presiding judge, Clarence McDowell; associate judge, William Shelly; secretary and handicapper, Ed W. Maginn; financial secretary, John Hachmeister; starter, Mars Cassidy; clerk of scales, J. B. Campbell; entry clerk, W. Norvell; timer, J. Galen Brown; ring manager, Arthur Elrod; general manager, Matt J. Winn. All the minor positions were filled and local people chosen to officiate.

At a meeting of the City Park Jockey Club all the old officers and directors were re-elected for the ensuing year, and include: D. H. Barnes, president; S. F. Heaslip, vice-president; J. Hachmeister, financial secretary; L. D. Lagarde, secretary. The directors are as follows: D. H. Barnes, E. Corrigan, S. F. Heaslip, L. D. Lagarde, F. H. Longshore and J. B. Respess.

Both tracks are beginning to fill rapidly, and secretary Maginn is beginning to feel worried where to place all the applicants for stall room. Every train brings its full quota of horsemen and turf followers, and a general racing air prevails already. Among the most prominent stables now housed at both courses are those of Burlew & O'Neill, J. J. McCafferty (J. A. Wernberg's division), P. Dunne, A. L. Darnaby, W. S. Williams, J. U. Strode, W. H. Fizer, G. Holle, J. Griffin, P. H. Jones and Lon Johnson, with a division of Barney Schreiber's. Robert Tucker has had his string here for the past week in charge of H. C. Riddle. Archie Zimmer and R. E. Watkins, who originally intended to race at the Benning meeting before shipping here, reconsidered and sent their strings direct from New York. They are slated to arrive tomorrow. Secretary Maginn stated today that the entry list for both tracks to the different stakes were big and some of the most prominent horses are in the number. The Derbys filled exceptionally well, and include S. C. Hildreth's pair, Uncle and Meelick. Both are at present in California, but will probably be shipped here to compete for the big three-year-old stakes.

B. Meyers, who claimed Tartar Maid from Jack Joyner before shipping here, sold the fast filly and St. Ilario today to Knebelkamp & Bradfield. John Schorr is expected to arrive here shortly with the string of M. H. Tichenor & Company that he has been training on the eastern tracks. In the lot is Good Luck, which should be a smart factor in the handicaps. C. R. Ellison's string of seventeen racers that he intends to campaign this winter are at present at Memphis, where trainer Brazier is giving them their final preparation prior to shipment. They will arrive November 19.

Jockey Nicol is the principal rider here up to the present, but any number of pigskin artists are to be in evidence soon.

FEWER LAYERS AT WASHINGTON.

New York, November 15.—There will be nothing like the number of layers of odds go to Washington for the meeting there that have gone in other years, mainly on account of the scarcity of real money. Every day the ring has been tighter, and certified checks are almost worthless so far as the holder being able to get them cashed is concerned. The following bookmakers have signified their intention of going to Benning:

Sol Lichtenstein, William Beverly, Dan Donnelly, Orlando Jones, Charles Heney, T. B. Alexander, E. J. Callahan, L. Gilbert, George Levy, M. Manheimer, M. Marks, P. Morgan, H. Quinn, Mark Reardon, Harry Cohen, Henry Schopps, William Snow, Leo Schwatts and Peter McGrath.

Of the prominent players, George Wheelock, Ike Hakelberg, Al Stokes, J. Moran and others will be on the ground as usual.

Clubhouse commissioners will be there in force—John Walters, Frank More, R. C. Doggett, Billy DuBois and one or two others.

Billy Cowen has closed up shop with the end of Aqueduct. It is said that he has had a bad season.

JOCKEY TAYLOR WELL THOUGHT OF.

Lexington, Ky., November 15.—Jockey Tommy Taylor, for whose services at New Orleans this winter Al Mathews, the New York turfman, is negotiating, was born in Lexington, but was reared in Franklin county. He is eighteen years old and has been riding since May 21, 1904. He had his first mount in a race on that date at Latonia, when he finished third to Premus with Lady Draper, which was then trained by his brother Jerry Taylor, who is yet a young man and whose connection with the turf dates back only seven years. Tommy Taylor rode his first winning race on Lady Charlot at the Fort Erie summer meeting in 1904. He is a bright boy whose parents have taught him well and he is highly regarded in this community. It would be hard to convince anyone in this vicinity that he was guilty of a criminal act when he was suspended because of the defeat of Barnsdale at Louisville last spring.

Winner—B. f. by Star Ruby—Aura II. (trained by S. C. Hildreth).

Went to post at 1:41. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second and third the same. Marian Casey, from a flying start, established an early big lead, but finished tiring badly and was lucky to win. Friar of Elgin broke slowly, but got into quick pursuit of the pacemaker and was wearing her down fast at the end. San Gil ran prominently for a half mile, then tired and was short. Last Go, away poorly, closed up steadily. Lady Bache showed early speed. Sombro, a fine looker, has worked fast, but broke and ran green, was virtually left and is very promising. Liddington ran fairly well.

Scratched—Sainwa, 109.

Overweights—Marian Casey, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. g. by The Hero—Little Grove Queen (trained by U. Z. DeArman).

Went to post at 2:14. At post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving; third the same. Money Muss broke poorly, but closed up rapidly and soon had the measure of his opposition taken in the stretch. Titus II., after forward pursuit of Pelham, drew out on the far turn, but succumbed in the closing drive as if short. Bill Mayham ran prominently for a half mile, then tired. E. M. Brattain, off close up, was shuffled steadily rearward, but gained rapidly in the stretch. Whiskers, away very badly, made up much ground. Ulctma, too small to carry heavy weight, showed early speed. Pelham set the pace, but is a quitter and fell back rapidly in the stretch. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Scratched—71826 Salvage, 124.

Winner—B. g. by Lamplighter—Irmingard (trained by J. P. Jones).

Went to post at 2:41. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. All Ablaze, away badly, trailed in the early running, but closed an immense gap in the last half and got up to win drawing clear. Remember helped force the pace throughout and finished a very game second. Vinton figured gamely and swiftly as one of the pacemakers from start to finish. Big Store, close up early, was pulled up repeatedly and finished with a belated rush. St. Albans was gaining at the end. Huerfano, big, heavy-headed and short, tired right at the end and will improve. Palemon quit as if short. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—69244 Ambitious, 104.

Winner—Ch. g. by Rubicon—Okuste (trained by S. Poik).

Went to post at 3:04. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily; third driving. Gemmell maintained nearest pursuit of the flying pacemaker from the start and, gaining steadily, got up in the last few strides and won drawing out fast. Silver Stocking, from a flying start, threatened to spreadeagle the others, but quit suddenly right at the end. Proper, well up, but outpaced, kept coming and finished a game third in a whirlwind finish and improvement can be expected. Rifleman, crossed at the start and nearly left, closed a big early gap and then gave way, was short and is very promising. Rapid Water, outpaced badly, was sore, but closed up well at the end. May L. N. dropped quickly to the rear and ran a very bad race.

Overweights—Silver Stocking, 1 pound.

Winner—Br. g. by The Judge—Floriana (trained by C. Brant).

Went to post at 3:27. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. The Captain, shuffled back early, steadily improved his position in the last six furlongs and, catching the leader tiring, got up in the last stride. Sahara, shut off on the first turn, dashed through into the lead on the inside and appeared all over the winner in the stretch, but succumbed finally after a game effort. Isabelita dropped back at the start, then closed a big gap and ran a cracking race. Redwood II., excessively urged into a long early lead, failed to stay. Chancellor Walworth ran well up for seven furlongs. Lord of the Vale has become a pronounced non-stayer. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Time, 1:09⅘.

Winner—Br. g. by Glenheim—Sister Jeanie (trained by H. Stover).

Went to post at 3:53. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Native Son, from a striding start, was patiently saved within striking distance in pursuit of the flying pacemaker and got up in the last stride to score a lucky win. Pajaroita set a tremendous and excessive pace and tired at the end, but was much the best. Ovelando, outpaced in the early running, closed up rapidly in the stretch, but finished pocketed securely. Blondy, poorly ridden, loomed up menacingly midway of the stretch, but was crowded out at a critical moment and pulled up. Creston was worn out in racing with the favorite and quit very badly. Ocean Shore is rounding to and finished well up.

GOOD RIDERS AT NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, La., November 15.—There will be much better riding material here this winter than ever before in the history of racing at the local tracks. Some of the best jockeys riding at New York during the summer and most of those from the Canadian circuit, Lexington and Latonia will be here. Among the skilled ones who will ride here will be: Nicol, Delaby, J. Lee, Robinson, Moesel, Liebert, Mountain, Notter, Garner, Sumter, McDaniel, Diggins, J. Martin, Joseph Hogg, Pohanka, W. Ott, Beckman, D. McCarthy, L. Smith, W. Walsh, F. Swain, G. Swain, Finn, Clare, Schlesinger, Goldstein, Baker, James Hennessy, Troxler, A. Martin and J. Johnson.

6—Veil, J. C. Clem, Legatee.
H. Forsland.

LOOK OUT FOR THIS ONE.

A colt which promises to be a Jack Nunnally at New Orleans this winter when he makes his first start is Ray Thompson, a two-year-old bay colt by Sorcerer—Succasunna, which was developed at the recent Dallas meeting and is now racing at San Antonio.

Ray Thompson is the first foal of his dam, and she was bred by John E. Madden, and is by Tenny—Skadi, by Emperor. The colt is named after his owner, and has run some good races, and the only one which he has met that has been able to take his measure is J. W. Fuller's three-year-old colt, Toy Boy. He is a weight carrier and has plenty of speed, and will probably continue in form this winter, as he was not asked to race until this fall.

SOMETHING NOVEL IN RACING.

During the recent meeting at Pimlico the stewards made a novel discovery, says the New York Sun. They found that a saddle made of aluminum and weighing practically nothing had been used by jockeys who wished to conceal the fact that they were overweight when they went to the scales to be checked before the races. The saddle, it was learned, was the property of a former steeplechase rider, who had been in the habit of leasing it out. An investigation is under way.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Horace E., Glenham and Stray are the three horses R. A. Rainey has shipped to Oakland from New York.

H. E. Rowell has had several offers for the contract on jockey Sandy and may let him go when Walter Miller reaches Oakland.

A penny parlay running against seven races of a recent English meeting on the "option accumulator" system, figured up the sum of $75,710.

Columbia Girl, which Johnson & Dodson entered in a number of the stakes at Oakland, has gone lame and will not be sent to the post for some time.

William H. Dubois has filed a formal complaint against jockey Willie Knapp with the stewards of the Queens County Jockey Club for leaving New York without his knowledge or consent.

Jack Atkin, who is a personal representative for Barney Schreiber in many of his turf interests, does not expect to give much of his time to racing this winter owing to the poor health of his wife.

San Francisco report has it that the California Jockey Club may run off part of its program at Tanforan, but the Oakland track is so much more easily accessible that the report is probably not well founded.

W. Miller, E. Dugan and Horner will all be riding at Oakland next week and their advent will make a welcome addition to the riding talent at the track. Horner will be there by Monday and the other two boys by Thursday or Friday.

Eastern owners are greatly pleased with the action of the Coney Island Jockey Club in increasing its stakes and purses for next year and concurrent action on similar lines is expected from the other New York racing organizations. An active demand for yearlings at enhanced prices is one of the predicted results to follow.

AQUEDUCT RACING STATISTICS.

The Queens County Jockey Club autumn meeting, opening November 2 and closing November 15, embraced twelve racing days. Seventy-two races, six of them steeplechases, were decided, the total distribution in stakes and purses being $79,680. This money went to eighty-seven owners, the following twenty-nine winning $800 or more:

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

F. T., St. Louis, Mo. See reply to J. W. M.

B. J. S., Norwood, O. The first race at Houston, Texas, November 6, was run in 1:04.

W. R., Chicago. That parlay won and there is no reason why it should not be paid promptly.

G. L. R., St. Louis, Mo. All bets on race 71843 are off, following the order of the judges at the track.

Dugan, Chicago. Ort Wells ran unplaced in a purse race won by Don Domo at Washington Park, June 25, 1903.

A. J. H., Chicago. The parlay won as a single bet on Lone Wolf and should be paid as such, being void as to Native Son.

J. W. M., Cincinnati, O. Your wager on Prejuicio was a draw. When bets are declared off at a track they are off elsewhere.

Winner—B. c, by Watercress—Colonial (trained by A. J. Joyner).

Went to post at 2:12. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Hessian was outrun in the early stages, but moved up fast on the turn, came through a small opening at the sixteenth post, challenged Suffrage and, in a hard drive, just got up at the finish. Suffrage carried her weight well, ran a good race and held on gamely at the end. Lad of Langden came on fast in the stretch and was an easy going third. Frank Lord was lame when going to the post, but showed the most early speed and ran a good race under the circumstances. Bat Masterson ran well to the stretch, but failed in the final drive.

Winner—Ch. h, by St. George—Weknowit (trained by B. T. Littlefield).

Went to post at 2:37. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Merry England ran in nearest pursuit of the pacemakers from the start and, coming fast through the stretch, outstayed Bad News in a gamely contested finish. Bad News was always prominent in the running and finished fast and resolutely, but could not quite get up. Kilter was almost left and, closing an immense gap into a fast going and close up third, would probably have won if off well. Agile ran in improving form and finished fast. Consistent showed early speed, but failed to stay the route. St. Valentine was practically left and cantered the course. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Winner—B. f, by Watercolor—Maiden Poem (trained by F. D. Weir).

Went to post at 3:01. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second and third driving. Aimee C. dashed into a long lead quickly and won all the way never fully extended. Ruscimo ran in nearest pursuit throughout and gamely outstayed Whidden for second place. The latter began slowly and was outrun early, but closed a big gap and, finishing fast, would have been second in another stride or two. Sussex ran a fairly good race, but tired in the stretch drive. Louis Roederer ran poorly and can do better. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Winner—B. f, by Watercress—Carina (trained by A. J. Joyner).

Went to post at 3:27. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Cressina ran in close attendance on W. H. Daniel to the stretch and, taking the lead when the latter tired, easily held her advantage to the finish. Ben Ban ran forwardly from the start and finished with a rush. Gretna Green got off poorly, but made up ground steadily and, coming on fast through the stretch, got up for third place in the last two strides. McCarter ran within striking distance to the stretch and loomed up menacingly when a furlong out, but got into a pocket and was shut off at a critical moment. W. H. Daniel showed superior early speed and set the pace fast for three-quarters, but quit badly in the stretch. Martin Doyle and Far West ran poorly.

Scratched—71823 Faust, 98.

Winner—Ch. c, by Troubadour—Run of Luck (trained by A. Zimmer).

Went to post at 3:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Ace High dashed into the lead at once and, after setting the pace to the stretch, gave way momentarily, but came again and won going away. Stoney Lee was outpaced in the early running, but moved up fast on the last turn and ran into the lead in the stretch, but tired in the final furlong and barely saved second place. Flowaway ran forwardly throughout and finished resolutely and close up. Cora Price ran a good three-quarters and retired. Reside was outpaced throughout. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Scratched—71754 Yorkist, 105; 71848³Rockstone, 98.

Overweights—Cora Price, 2 pounds.

Time, 13, 24⅕, 48⅕, 1:14⅗.

Winner—B. c, by Griffon—Gurgle (trained by W. McDaniel).

Went to post at 4:21. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Zagg was away well and, running into the lead quickly, held his advantage all the way and won easing up. Duke of Bridgewater made up ground steadily and outstayed Throckmorton for second place in a game drive. Throckmorton was knocked back early, but came again under a good ride and was a fast going third. Onatassa closed a big gap and finished with a rush. Red Bonnet ran fairly well only. Almandine ran well to the stretch, but failed to stay. Sir Galahad went well for a half and retired.

Scratched—71822 Trash, 105; 71822 Goshen Chief, 108; 71822 Hardpan, 105; 71777 Bonnie Alan, 108.

Don't Overlook This!
As it is Very Important to You.
NO TIPS—NO INFORMATION ON THE RACES—NO TURF BUREAU.
Only advise you, if you are playing the races, to purchase one of our "RECORD SHEETS," so that you can keep a correct record of all your bets, the amount that you bet, and the odds that you receive; also the distance, condition of track, day and date and age and class of the horse that you bet on. This sheet is so simply arranged that you can do this in a few minutes, as it is all ruled and printed for that purpose. It is of great value to all bettors, especially HANDICAPPERS AND SYSTEM PLAYERS. Don't fail to send for one at once. It only costs you 50c. and is worth $50.00 to you. Send 50c. and your address and we will mail you one postpaid at once, with full directions. It will last you for 30 or 40 days. Address,
